

Diverse Climates
Hamburg

present:

WOMEN IN SCIENCE NOW

How to Use Science to Overcome the Remaining Obstacles to Equity

WITH AUTHOR LISA M. P. MUNOZ

with introduction from
UHH Vice President
Prof. Jetta Frost

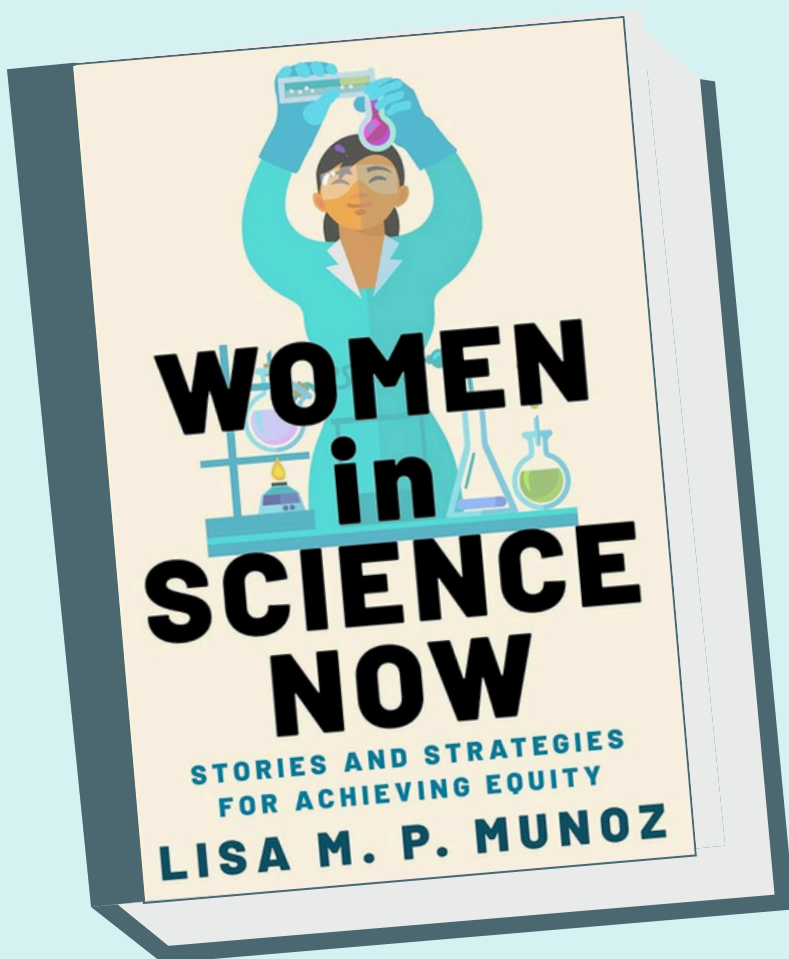

Thursday,
27.06 18:00

VORTRAGSRAUM
@ STABI
VMP3, 1ST FLOOR

40 min talk
+
20 min Q&A

moderated by
Prof. Johanna Baehr
& Prof. Achim Oberg

Register:

Lisa M. P. Munoz is a science writer and the founder and president of SciComm Services, a science communications consulting firm. A former journalist and press officer, she has more than twenty years of experience crafting science content for scientists and the public alike. Munoz holds an engineering degree from Cornell University.

Previously:

Universität Hamburg
DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

CLUSTER OF EXCELLENCE
CLIMATE, CLIMATIC CHANGE, AND SOCIETY (CLICCS)

Organizers:

Kaja Scheliga (Project Manager Experimental Oceanography IfM)
Sebastian Zubrzycki (CLICSS Gender and diversity program lead)
Luisa Gensch (IMPRS-ESM PhD representative)
Eduardo Alastrué de Asenjo (IMPRS-ESM PhD candidate)